Faasi International Corporation
CORPORATE PROFILE

ABOUT

Faasi International Corporation was established in 1997 with its Head Office (HQ) in La Trinidad, Benguet, Philippines, and the Corporate Branch Office in the Ortigas Business Center in Pasig City, Philippines. The Manila Office Branch is located in Malate, Manila, Philippines.

The Company provides superior recruitment and consultancy services to manage the implementation of human capital and to serve the needs of clients and affiliate agency partners in the international market. The Mission of the Company is to “Exceed the expectation of the clientele by providing outstanding customer service, increased flexibility and greater value, thus, improving operation efficiency and excellent return on investment”.

Our TEAM is renowned for professionalism and expertise, combined with hands-on experience to ensure each client and affiliate partner receipt of the utmost and efficient services. We are proficient in manpower recruitment and very much involved in every stage of the “professional and skilled worker selection”, from recruitment towards the completion of the different processes including functional support. Our extensive knowledge and expertise in human capital management is an accomplishment recognized under good standing and licensed to operate by the Department of Migrant Workers (DMW) to encompass the different criterion of the system to regulate the procedures of operation including processing of business requirements and serviceable specification for overseas employment. The Management of Faasi International Corporation understand that change is not easy. Since 1997, we assisted affiliate agencies all across the world to respond in the industry transitions to stay competitive. Years of experience have brought us to a higher level to make the business a successful priority.

The Faasi International Corporation TEAM experts are confident and prepared to assist in the development of strategies, not only to survive the post pandemic era, but also resilient to help affiliate agencies and clients thrive in a profitable future.
